

TELEGRAPHIC Whig & Courier. FROM WASHINGTON. PROCEEDING TO THE TROPICS. The United States Navy Department has received from the Department of the Interior a report from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, dated July 1, 1898, in relation to the proposed sale of the public lands in the Territory of Alaska.

At 10 o'clock the colors of the United States flag were hoisted on the roof of the building. The band played the national anthem. The speaker then read a report from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, dated July 1, 1898, in relation to the proposed sale of the public lands in the Territory of Alaska. The speaker then announced that the sale of the lands would take place on July 1, 1898, at 10 o'clock.

At 10 o'clock the colors of the United States flag were hoisted on the roof of the building. The band played the national anthem. The speaker then read a report from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, dated July 1, 1898, in relation to the proposed sale of the public lands in the Territory of Alaska. The speaker then announced that the sale of the lands would take place on July 1, 1898, at 10 o'clock.

At 10 o'clock the colors of the United States flag were hoisted on the roof of the building. The band played the national anthem. The speaker then read a report from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, dated July 1, 1898, in relation to the proposed sale of the public lands in the Territory of Alaska. The speaker then announced that the sale of the lands would take place on July 1, 1898, at 10 o'clock.

At 10 o'clock the colors of the United States flag were hoisted on the roof of the building. The band played the national anthem. The speaker then read a report from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, dated July 1, 1898, in relation to the proposed sale of the public lands in the Territory of Alaska. The speaker then announced that the sale of the lands would take place on July 1, 1898, at 10 o'clock.

At 10 o'clock the colors of the United States flag were hoisted on the roof of the building. The band played the national anthem. The speaker then read a report from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, dated July 1, 1898, in relation to the proposed sale of the public lands in the Territory of Alaska. The speaker then announced that the sale of the lands would take place on July 1, 1898, at 10 o'clock.

At 10 o'clock the colors of the United States flag were hoisted on the roof of the building. The band played the national anthem. The speaker then read a report from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, dated July 1, 1898, in relation to the proposed sale of the public lands in the Territory of Alaska. The speaker then announced that the sale of the lands would take place on July 1, 1898, at 10 o'clock.

WATCHES - ELGIN. IN STORE 83. SMITH'S BLOCK. W. F. WEEKS. ELGIN WATCHES.

TOBACCO - TOBACCO. PATTEN. HAS RECEIVED A FINE STOCK OF Fancy Tobacco. AT LOW PRICES.

OPENING. Piques!! Piques!! 100 PIECES. From 18 cts. To $1.00 per yard. NEW BLACK SILKS. LAMA SHAWLS. STEEL COLORED DRESS GOODS.

NEW PAISLEY SHAWLS. COTTONS. SPECIAL BARGAINS. WHITE GOODS. ALL NEW AND FRESH. JOSEPH E. SNOWS.

Kind and Gentle Reader! BANG-UP DINNER. FROM THE HONORABLE SAUSAGE. First Class Dinner. THE AMERICAN BUTTON-HOLE Sewing Machine.

WONDERFUL INVENTION. CALL AND SEE IT. WALTHAM WATCHES. ELGIN WATCHES. SWISS WATCHES. The Best Stock in the City!

Bangor to Aurora! CHANGE OF TIME. The Great Utopia Lake SEA SERPENT. Wild Man of Africa. Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. July 30, 31st and 1st.

[illegible]